SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Surrounded by beautiful flowers, all tributes of friendship and love, and showered with greetings and congratulations from all parts of the country, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. P. Brock celebrated the golden anniversary of their marriage yesterday when they were at home to their friends informally from 5 to 7 o'clock at their residence, 206 East Franklin Street. The whole lower floor of the old Brock home, which has been the scene of much charming and pleasant hospitality for years past, was gay in its decorations cears past, was gay in its decorations of yellow flowers and great baskets Misses Maude and Landonia Brock, of and jars of golden blossoms. The Washington all nieces of Dr. Brock mantels were banked with goldenrod, yellow chrysanthemums and yellow dahlias and huge baskets of yellow quantities of yellow casion and the drawing-rooms were thronged with several hundred guests suit of blue with a modish hat to match, during receiving hours. Receiving and a corsage bouquet of orchids and with Dr. and Mrs. Brock were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin L. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Virginia and Charles city, was the bridegroom's best man. Brock Hughes, Dr. C. B. Brock and A. Tyler Brock. Mrs. Brock wore a hand-room a grown of black tree made over the wedding, which was very quietly celevants of the west brated but the event is one of the west b dding fifty years ago, and Colonel ginia; Mr. Gordon McCabe, who was among derson, of

Dunlop Flour

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY W

Same Quality Every Day. Munroe 1861. HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'3?

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

BIRTHDAY RINGS, BRACELETS,

CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. SOLD ONLY BY

HOOL SHOES FOR HOYS AND GIRLS
$1.50 to $3.00.
Every Pair Guaranteed.

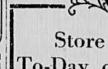

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

Store Closed To-Day on Account of Holiday Haufmann & Go lahlias and huge baskets of yellow Quantities of yellow marigolds and snap-iragons, and rosebuds were suspended between the doorways and over chancel of St. John's chapel in Louisa of yellow roses were also arranged on and the altar was decorated in vases of the table and about the room, and the purple and yellow blossoms and light-candles were set in quaint old gilt ed candles. Mrs. Laurence Mendenhall candlesticks shaded in yellow and gold. played the wedding music. The bride lovely bouquets, gifts from the Co-both bride and groom are widely related Daughters of the lated throughout the State, as well as confederacy and the Daughters of the Richmond. Mrs. Broome is the doing the honors of the afternoon were lovered by the late General Revolution. Assisting in doing the honors of the afternoon were confederacy and the Daughters of the in Richmond. Mrs. Broome is the American Revolution. Assisting in granddaughter of the late General doing the honors of the afternoon were Joseph R. Anderson, of Richmond, and Mrs. Catesby Jones, Miss Mary Pegram, Dr. J. S. Dorsey Cullen, also of this Mrs. Catesby Jones, Mrs. W. H. Palmer, city. Out-of-town guests for the cerestand George Cosby, of Lynchburg, at Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. Edmony included Mrs. and Mrs. William The same color scheme was carried. tion was the present of Major J. Philadelphia; Mrs. Otey Cutier, William ceremony, and the guests present in-Booten Hill, who was best man at the T. Moseley, of the University of Vir-wedding fifty years ago, and Colonel ginla; Mr. Gwathmey and Captain Antown guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mason left Bruce, Miss Dorothy Bruce, Charles Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. R. Archer Hobson, Dr. Edwin T. Hobson, W. H. Palmer The wedding Mann—Cov.

Jann-Cox. guests filled the edifice for the ceremony, which was performed by Dr.
W. S. Noighbors. Pink roses and cathedral candles were used on the altar, and standards of pink flowers caught with tulle, marked the pews reserved for the family. During the half hour the guests were assembling an elaborate musical program was rendered by Mrs. J. P. Lamb, Miss Leone Waggoner, Messrs. Lyle and Cook. The quartet sang "Because," and Miss Waggoner rendered "Sweetheart," Miss Antoinette Dosser singheart," Miss Antoinette Dosser sing-ing "All for You," just before the ar-rival of the bride and her attendants at exquisite affair, fashioned of heavy white satin and embroidered in pearls of several generations of lovely wo-men. Her veil of real lace, also an heirloom, which fell to the hem of the J.B. Mosby &Co.

The handsomest Silks in Richmond are in this store.

MADE FROM GOLD MEDAL FLOUR.

Iong court train, was word backing, and was fasteneed with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley, and her only ornament was a diamond pendant, the groom's gift. General Cox gave his daughter in marriage, and they were met at the chancel steps by the bridegroom and his best man, Frank Mann, of New York. Miss Juliet Mann, who was maid of honor, was gowned in palest pink crepe meteor trimmed in lace and pearls, and meteor trimmed in lace and pearls, and she carried an armful of Killarney roses. The two little flower girls, Julia Slack and Amelia Morrison, and the two little girls who carried the rib-bons, Amelia Slack and Lucy Morri-son, wore white lingerie frocks and carried French baskets of pink blos soms.

There were four bridesmaids. Misses Antoinette Dosser, of Knoxville, and Mary L. Cox, of Bristol, wore French frocks of pink crepe meteor with insets of cream-colored lace and chiffon, and Misses Octavia Wofford, of Johnson City, and Eula Lee Kendrick, of Bristol, were gowned in green crepe meteor finished with lace, and all carried similar bouquets of Killarney rosebuds. The groomsmen included William Hodges Mann, Jr., of Richmond; W. A. Anderson, of New Rochelle, N. Y.; Charles Cox, brother of the bride, and Colonel Ralph P. Neale, of this city. The ushers were Messrs. Frank Henderson, Frank Leake, Edward Lockett and Dr. Copenhaver.

A large reception was given at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony, and some several hundred guests were present. The entire lower floor of the Cox home was hung with garland of pink flowers for the affair, and masses of pink roses and pink shaded lights were used on the mantels. Governor and Mrs. Mann were in the receiving line for the resoms.

There were four bridesmaids. Misses the mantels. Governor and Mrs. Manr were in the receiving line for the reception, with the bride and groom and General and Mrs. Cox, and Mrs. Mann was gowned in white brocade embroided in silver and trimmed in real lace th a corsage bouquet of lilies of the

Mr. and Mrs. Mann left later in the evening for a Western honeymoon, and will sail next week from San Francisco for their home in Tien Tsin, China. Some of the out-of-town guests attending the wedding last evening were the Governor of Virginla and Mrs. William Hodges Mann, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Mann, of Richmond; Colonel and Mrs. James Mann, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Hodges Mann, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. L. Richmond, of Gate City; Mrs. Annis Morrison, of Virginia; Mrs. J. B. Richmond, of Virginia; Judge and Mrs. Sanford, of Knoxville; Judge and Mrs. Dana Harmon, of Greenville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox, of Bristol; Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Mann, of Kenbridge; James R. Cox, of Texas, and others.

Richmond German Clab Meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Mann left later in the Richmond German Club Meeting.

Society is vastly interested in the announcement that the annual meeting of the Richmond German Club will be held at the Westmoreland Club on Saturday evening, October 4, at $:30 o'clock. Officers and members of the board will be elected, as well as the few new members that are every year added to the club.

The first "Monday" is the leading society event of the social season, and a debutante's winter is made or marred by her appearance or non-appearance ty her appearance or non-appearance at this exclusive and charming func-tion. The date for the opening dance of the club will also probably be de-

Antrim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paylor Antrim, of "Riverside," Albemarle County, to John Young Mason son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Mason of Lynchburg, took place last evening at 6:30 o'clock at Christ Episcopal Church in Charlottesville, the Rev. Harry B. Lee, rector of the church, officiating. White chrysanthemums, palms and ferns decorated the church, and clusters of white chrysanthemums and clusters of white chrysanthemums tied with tulle bows decorated the pews, and the bridal party stood before an arch of green and white encircled with candles. Miss Fannie Day Meade, organist of the church, presided at the organ and rendered the wedding marches and an elaborate program during the time the guests were being seated. were being seated.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Antrim, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink brocade trimmed in lace and pearls, and carried a big bouquet of Killarney roses. Mrs. William chancel of St. John's chapel in Louisa Cooper, who was dame of nonor, work the windows. The hail was also banked with yellow flowers and lighted with candles shaded in yellow, and in the dining-room the feature of the table decorations was the wedding cake on a golden platter bearing the dates 1868. Is 1913, and wound with a garland of yellow flowers and tuile. Gilt baskets of yellow roses were also arranged on the altar was decorated in vases of tules. The Rev. Robert A. Goodwin, of light, and the altar was decorated in vases of flowers were plak chrysanthemums and their flowers were plak chrysanthemums flowers were plak chrysanthemums. groomsmen included William Cosby, of Antrim, Lyttleton Wood, of Charlottes-ville; Dr. T. N. Davis, of Lynchburg, and Barton Palmer, of Urbanna.

lace and embroidered in pearls, and her

Caroline Fleet, Hallie Mason, Mrs. John S. Wright, George Cosby, Dr. T. N. Davis, all of Lynchburg; Miss Grace

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

Removes Tan. Pimples. Freekles. Moth Patches.Rash and Skin Diseases. and every blemish on benuty. and defice detection. It has stood the test of 66 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure it is properly made. Accept no counterfeit of similar name. a lady of the hautton es will use them. I reach the reast harmful

Ferd. T. Hepkins & San, Props., 37 Great Janes St., N.Y.C.

Your Photograph

When Made by

Homeier & Clark will certainly be satisfactory.

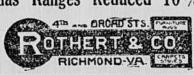

Phone for appointment. Mon-

Studio 307 E. Broad St.

Canned Early June Peas..... 10c

S. Ullman's Son 1820-1822 East Main Street. 506 East Marshall Street.

Gas Ranges Reduced 10%

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET.

MILLINERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china

DREYFUS & CO.

Wanted, a Saleslady as assistant in the Corset and Muslin Underwear Sections. Apply to A. G. Hoover.

Children's School $1

ALBERT STEIN Fifth and Broad

To Observe Holiday The Thalhimer Store Will Be Closed To-Day

garet Waddey, of Richmond; Garland Jefferson, of Amelia; Mrs. H. T. Crigler, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Cooper, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich Dudley, of Middleburg, and Barton Palmer, of Urbanna.

Fashionable Wedding at Orange

Another big out-of-town wedding in ton, which took place yesterday Thomas's Episcopal Church, Orange, where the wedding took place. to 1831, and the deep windows and oldfashioned pews formed an effective background for the many prominent guests present. Trailing vines, ferns and white chrysanthemums decorated the church, and big bunches of white flowers marked the aisles and the entrance to the chancel, only tall catheington; Canon De Vries, of the Catheington, and the Rev. R. S. Carter, rector of the church

The bride entered the church with basket of tiny pink chrysanthemums. The two bridesmaids, Misses Pauline and Charlotte Block, both sisters of the groom, were gowned in white crepe meteor with lace coats and wide rn. girdles, and their hats were of tiack trimmed in shaded pink plumes. Their bouquets were of pink chrysan-The ushers included Virginus Randolph Shackelford, brother of the bride; H. Green Shackelford, of Orange; Herbert Block and Leonard of Washington, and the ribbons were held by Latinier S. Macon, Jr., and Jack Macon, sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Macon, of Orange. All of the at-tendants were relatives of the bride

The bride's mother was before her marriage, Miss Virginia Randolph, daughter of Dr. W. C. N. Randolph, of Charlottesville, and a granddaughter of Thomas Jefferson, and is also a granddaughter of the late B. H. Shackelford, one of the leading law-yers of Fauquier County in his day, is a niece of Mrs. C. C. Walker, of family equally as prominent socially as that of his bride, was for three years chaplain at Woodberry Forest School, and is now rector of Grace Church in Haddonfield, N. J., where Guests from a distance at the wed-ning yesterday were Mrs. R. C. Quinn. ding yesterday were Mrs. R. C. Quinn. Mias Quinn. Miss Annie Gilliam, Miss Louise Bowman. Mr. and Mrs. Y. P. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Randolph—all of Lynchburg: Mrs. Springs. Pittman Springs, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grissley. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grissley. Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Green, of Culpeper; Miss Elizabeth Randolph, of Charlottesville; Mrs. W. R. Carter, of Annapolis, Md.; Judge T. H. Wilcox, of Norfolk; Miss Margaret Fishburn, of Leesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Fishburn, of Leesburg: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shertz, of Germantown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Block, of Washington, and others.

Bnek in Richmond.

Mrs. J. Arthur Lefroy, who has been Mrs. J. Arthur Lefroy, who has been spenting the summer months in the mountains, and has recently been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Randolph Caperton, at Westhampton, has returned to Richmond. Mrs. Lefroy and her brother, John H. Montague, Jr., will be at 205 West Franklin Street for the winter months.

ter Park for the equipment of a kin- Virginia.

clock, and there will be an interesting musical program, and decorations will be in autumn flowers. Hostesses for the affair include Mesdames J. Garland Pollard, Charles D. Taylor, Jr., A. F. Ryland, Howard Sutton, Lawton Crutchfield, R. C. Garlick, J. B. Moore, Jr., Victor Shelburne, B. W. Wilson, J. E. Cox, A. M. Robertson and Miss Susie McCarthy. The public is cordially invited to attend is cordially invited to attend. Marriage Announced.

Announcement has been made in Richmond of the marriage of Miss Gay Duerson, daughter of Mrs. H. O. Duerson, and Arthur S. Crawford, the ceremony having taken place in Green Memorial Church in Roanoke on September 29. The wedding is of much interest to Mr. Crawford's friends in Richmond, where he formerly made his home. He and his bride have gone North on their wedding trip, and on their return will reside in Norfolk.

The marriage of Harry Flood Byrd, ley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw Beverley, both of Winches-Protestant Episcopal Church, Winchester, and the rector, Rev. William D. Smith, will officiate. The wedding will be a notable event in society. ding will be a notable event in society.

Mr. Byrd and his bride will leave that evening for their honeymoon trip.

Owing to the death of Joseph Wright, who was a near relative of the family of the bride, the large re-Owing to the death of solvers, and been the Empress.

Wright, who was a near relative of the family of the bride, the large rethe family of the bride, the large reing part in the manoeuvres, but even the family of the bride, the large to the family of the bride, the large to the family of the bride, the half the was to have followed the many of the leading generals and all many of the leading generals and all the great nobles among the officers seem to have been almost beside themception having been Mr. and Mrs. Beverley.

In Richmond.

at her home, 1639 Park Avenue, her mother, Mrs. John Craighead Griffin, of Petersburg Mrs. Mary Lynch Huthave returned from a visit to "The Cedars," the country home of the Huttons, in Maryland, and will be with her mother, Mrs. Adkins, on Park Avenue, for the winter months.

All members of the Children's Auxiliary, Lee Chapter, United Daugh-ters of the Confederacy, are asked to Street entrance, when they will be pre-first fall meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church parlors. Business of importance is to be transacted and all members of the society are

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Edwin Wright, formerly Miss Louise Mason, of this city, will arrive here to-day from Ardmore, Pa., for a visit to her brother, Dr. Norton Mason, on East Grace Street.

ter, Miss Elizabeth Eaches left Mon-day for Baltimore, where they are where they are Mrs. Theodore Gordon Ellyson is

Mrs. Ewing Eaches and her daughvisiting friends in Norfolk for some

Mrs. Selby A. Harney, of 311 East Grace Street, has as her guest for the United Daughters of the Confederacy Convention, Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Peters-

Henry B. Hill, who has been ill fo some time past, is now at Grace Hospital here.

Heard have returned to Richmond, after a short stay in Washington

Crump at her home on West Grace

Miss Liesa Boiling Archer, who has been visiting in Bon Air for several days, has returned to the city. Nathan Bushnell, Jr., has gone to

Mrs. W. Chase Morton and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, have returned to Bichmond after spending the summer was for a long time curator of the Richmond after spending the summer An interesting social event of tomorrow will be a big charity tea to be given by the Woman's Club of GinCharles Town, Jefferson County, West lished, contestants may secure ALL ture may be written down. Thus, with

After picture No. 70 has been published, contestants may still secure the first seventy pictures free, but by that time the first seventy pictures will NOT constitute ALL the back pictures. If you wait until picture No. 75 has been printed you will have to buy seventy-one, seventy-two, seventythree, seventy-four and seventy-five, for they cannot be had free, unless they are clipped from the paper,

Hetter get the pictures that have prizes. beer, printed thus far, get them free, and then clip the balance of the seventy-seven pictures from the paper as they appear.

And there is plenty of time for you to solve the pictures, for you will not have to hand in your set for several weeks after picture. No. 77 has appeared.

seventy-seven contest pictures. With each catalegue is given seven certinicates, which are redeemable for pictures one to thirty-five, inclusive.

mitted seventy-seven correct answers, sending only five answers to each picture, making a total of 385 answers, seventy-seven correct answers, seventy-seventy The Answer Book contains seventy-seven couble pages. On each page one thor's name on the same line with the of the teventy-seven pictures is pasted. Itile of the book.

Until picture No. 70 has been pub- from one to ten answers to each pic Booklovers' Contest pictures to date different answers to each picture, while having only one copy of each picture. And the Answer Book may be secured for 75 cents, or 80 cents by mail. And with the Answer Book you will get six certificates, redeemable free for the pictures from No. 36 to No. 70, inclusive.

cate free with the catalogue and Anewer Book, and get into this great

Now reas to-day's contest announcement.

And act TO-DAY!

Auswers to Querles. The prizes will go to the contestants who send in the most number of correct answers with the smallest number of extra answers. For instance, The first thirty-five pictures are se- if Mr. A were to send in seventythe first thirty-live pictures are se-cured free with the catalogue, which is a list of about 5,000 book titles. This catalogue contains the seventy-seven correct answers, and Mr. B sub-mitted seventy-seven correct answers, is simply an illustration.

PRESENCE OF WOMEN WITHOUT PRECEDENT

Archduke Francis Ferdinand's Morganatic Wife Again Source of Dissension.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. RCHDUKE FRANCIS FERDI-NAND'S morganatic wife, the Buchess of Hohenberg, is once again in the limelight, as the source of dissension.

The archduke, who is next heir to the throne, had, as the newly-appointed inspetcor-general of the armed forces of Austria-Hungary, been presiding over the grand army manoeuvres, in the place of the Emperor. The duchess, contrary to usage and custom, was with him throughout custom, was with him throughout kind that I have ever had the oppor-the entire period of the manocuvres, tunity of examining, and among the casions being without precedent. To all the praise and the congratulations which the archduke tendered in the name of the Emperor to the successful commanders during the sham warfare, at Brussels, on the occasion of din-she added her own. As a climax, he ing one evening at Buckingham Falace wound up the grand manoeuvres with selves with indignation at being thus forced to parade before the former Countess Chotek, and to accord to her the sensational retirement last week of General Baron Conrad von Hotzendorff, the chief of the general staff of the army, is construed as a protest against the duchess's usurpation of imperial prerothroughout the manoeuvres. So bitter ng at his post until the appointment proposes to remain until relieved of ing the manocyures by the duchess in elicacy, and which has involved her who was her sister's maid of work as white lace frock with pink sash, and carried a big of tiny pink chrysanthemums.

Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary Society of keenly feels all the afronts to which the First Baptist Church will hold its she has been subjected by reason of her birth, and was glad of the oppor tunity that came within his reach of paying her the rare honor of leading order past her, she taking the salute.

himself not to raise her to the throne when he succeeds to the crown. But spect his oath, he will certainly lavish ipon her every other distinction in his power, and that no end of trouble will ensue, since not only all the other members of the imperial family, but likewise all the great nobles and high officials of the realm are unalterably opposed to conceding to her honors to which she is not entitled by her birth as Countess Chotek, and by her morganatic marriage.

Sirs. L. H. Butterick, of this city, is spendin the autumn with her sister. Mrs. John H. Wight, in the Green Spring Valley, Md.

Baron Max von Kubeck, whose death has just taken place at Vienna, at an advanced age, will be remembered in advanced age, will be remembered in this country as having been stationed for a time at Washington, and as havon several occasions visited the Ing on several occasions visited the United States in behalf of his government. It was during one of these stays in America that ne married Natalle de Loosey, of New York, sister of Mrs. Charles Oelrichs, of New York, and also of Mrs. Theodore A. Havemeyer, of that city.

The union was not a happy one. The Baroness Kubeck shared the fate Mrs. Willis Heard and Miss Katherine Jeard have returned to Richmond, after short stay in Washington.

The Baroness Kubeck snared the rate of all other American girls who have married Austrian nobles; and, unable to fulfil the genealogical requirements exacted from all women who are Aus-Channing M. Ward, of this city, is registered at the Hotel Wolcott in New York.

Exacted from all women who are Austrian subjects by birth or by marriage, she found herself barred from presentation at the court of Vienna. Being thus virtually excluded from the great world in the Auvian capital, and, indeed, throughout the Dual Empire, she became dissatisfied with box less than the court of the bride in Titusville. she became dissatished with her lot, and after the birth of a daughter of the name of Blanche, a divorce took place, the baroness subsequently mar-rying Emeric Robert, an actor at the Burg Theatre at Vienna. Her daugh-ter Blanche was equally unfortunate in her marriage. For, within a year of her wedding, she recovered her freedom, and is now known by her maiden name of Baroness Blanche Kubeck, being also barred from court by rea-son of the Bourgeois birth of her mother dent of the imperial Reichstag, and chief lieutenant and associate of the great Prince Metternich, Chancellor of Queen Victoria compiled during her than three-score years, a wonderful book of autographs, in which all the eminent men and women whom she had met from the time of her succession to the throne until her last illness, wards the end of her life so many figured therein had passed away that she was wont to describe it as he It is the most wonderful book of the notable signatures that I can recall therein, was that of Leo XIII., who had written his name as Archbishop Joachim Pecci, long before he became with the Queen and the prince consort carry with it that information, namely, that of that wonderful Hungarian-Jewish Orientalist, who died the other day as professor of Oriental languages at the University of Budapest, under the name of Armin Vambery. He candidly informed Vambery, He candidly informed Queen Victoria, when asked to sign Queen Victoria, when asked to sign her book, that he was wholly ignorant of his age, and had no means of de-termining within several years the date of his birth, though I see that or rather, I should say, that was the name of his father, a village cobbler in Hungary, and he was in turn errand boy to a dressmaker, shoe black and aging by means of occupation of this and afterwards through the academy Of his life at Constantinople, as tutor ous Turkish dignitaries, of his wor derful travels through the most fanatic regions of Central Asia, in the guise of a dervish, every reader of his books is aware.

his obituaries describe him as eighty-traordinary influence which Vambery was able for a number of years to exercise upon the foreign policy of England, in fostering her Russophobia, Indeed, it was with a view of counteracting this influence that the cele-London to win sympathy for Russia stone that Vambery had managed to secure on Lord Beaconsfield. Queen Victoria was immensely interested in pleasure in his company that he was wont to have him stay at Sandring-ham, and, after his succession to the throne, at Windsor Castle, bestowing upon him the commandership of his Victorian Order. Queen Mary also developed a great liking for him, and showered upon led to make a graceful return, in the form of a very interesting and lauratory history of her father's materna Rhedey. At her instance, and at her expense, he afterwards repaired their tombs in the churchyard at the little Transylvanian village Gyorgy, and set up monuments over those graves that were not thus adorned; a tablet in the chancel of mentality of Professor Arminius Vam-

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

Paul-Hatmaker

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., October 1.—Miles K.
Hancock and Miss Mattle A. Mahon, the latter of lichester, Md., were married at noon to-day at Trinity M. E.
Church, by Rev. G. A. Luttrell, pastor.

Diamond Rings

Of perfect quality and elegant set-Our Diamond Department is the most extensive in the South

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS.

Richmond's Lending Jewelers,

Elegant Wedding Gifts The Nowlan Company,

921 East Main St.

Are headquarters for Elegant Gifts of Fine Gold and Sterling Silver, and their selection for this season comprises many beautiful articles, such as will not be found in other stocks, at prices more reasonable than ever before.

Two Days---Then No More Chance For All Back Pictures Free! The First 70 Pictures Are Free-and in Beneath where each picture is pasted Two Days No. 70 Will Be Printed. | there are ten blank spaces, where